

Privacy Policy

AEIX is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and disclose information when you use our text-to-ai application.

Collection of Information

We collect information that you provide to us when you use our text-to-ai application. This may include your phone number and any messages or prompts you send to our system. We may also collect information about your device, such as your device type, operating system, and mobile carrier.

Use of Information

We use the information we collect to provide and improve our text-to-ai application. This includes responding to your prompts and messages, and customizing our responses based on your previous interactions with our system. We may also use the information to develop new features and services, and to analyze user behavior and trends.

Disclosure of Information

We do not share your personal information with third parties, except as necessary to provide and improve our text-to-ai application. This may include sharing your information with our service providers, such as Twilio and OpenAI, who assist us in providing our services. We may also disclose your information in response to a legal request, such as a subpoena or court order, or to protect the safety and security of our users and the public.

Security

We take reasonable measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. However, no security measure is completely foolproof, and we cannot guarantee the security of your information.

Data Retention

We retain your information for as long as necessary to provide and improve our text-to-ai application, and as required by law.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we will notify you by email or by posting a notice on our website.
